

Client: Tegeta Resources

Site/Location: Vryheid, KwaZulu-Natal

Project Period: April 2008 – June 2008

Project Description:

RSV ENCO was appointed to do a due diligence study on a number of existing anthracite collieries in Vryheid, Northern KwaZulu-Natal.

The Project Included:

- Current mining operations with regard to maintenance procedures, safety policies and procedures, environmental compliance
- Current contractors' employed by Tegeta.
- The beneficiation plant and the logistics chain, including the railway sidings
- The viability and practical implementation of the planned growth strategy
- The assumed financial parameters employed in the financial model.

Services provided:

- Project management
- Mining engineering services
- Mechanical / electrical mining services
- Process engineering services
- Environmental assessment services
- Financial modeling