

ZIBULO PROJECT (ZONDAGSFONTEIN)

Client: Anglo Operations Limited

Site/Location: Ogies, Mpumalanga

Project Period: May 2010 – June 2011

Project Description:

Professional services for shaft sinking and quality control management

The Project Includes:

- Overseeing daily sinking activities
- Overseeing daily jiggging of shaft steelwork on site
- Interface management of all shaft survey activities
- Quality control of jiggging of shaft steelwork at manufacturers premises

Services Provided by ENCO:

- Evaluation of sinking methodologies and proposed sinking schedule
- Evaluation of daily diaries and sinking cycles (planned vs actual)
- Cost control
- Evaluation of rigging studies
- Evaluation of quality control plan of steelwork manufacturers
- Inspection of steelwork quality at manufacturers' premises
- Provide input on steelwork storage procedures on site